Mrs. Amy Aberly Dunkelberger, 58, wife of Dr. R. M. Dunkelberger, 308 Springs avenue, died Sunday morning at 10:16 o'clock at the Warner hospital following an illness of approximately six months.

The illness began last March while she was in India and late in April she flew home with her husband for special treatment.

Mrs. Dunkelberger was born in Guntur, India, on May 11, 1890, a daughter of Dr. John Aberly and the late Alice Strauss Aberly. She graduated in the academic and music courses at Irving college, Mechanicsburg, in 1909.

Since that time she was engaged as an active missionary along with her husband in the following stations on the mission field: Chirala, Renticin-tala, Rajahmundry and Tenali, India.

She was especially fluent in the use of the Telugu language and at various times was in charge of the School for Blind at Renticin-tala, Statim grammar schools and the women's societies. She shared fully in mission and church work of her husband. Mrs. Dunkelberger served as an official member of the Mission Council of East Guntur Synod and various other Indian church organizations.

During an extended furlough occasioned by the illness and death of her mother, and the Second World War, she shared in the work of her husband, who was supply pastor for three years of Zion Lutheran church, Myersdale.

Ronald Kayser Is 'Very Good'; Awaits Second Operation

Erie, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Five-year-old Ronald Kayser was reported in very good condition today as he awaited the second of three serious operations to correct the boy's outside bladder.

The first operation was performed Saturday by Dr. Elmer Hess, Erie urologist. The second is expected about November 7.

"Ronald is in very good condition considering the seriousness of the operation," Dr. Hess reported.

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kayser of Gettysburg. He was admitted to Erie's St. Vincent's hospital about two weeks ago. Doctors say an external bladder usually proves fatal unless it is corrected early in life.

In the first two operations the ureters tubes (connecting the kidneys to the bladder) are severed, planted within the body, and connected to the bowel. The outside bladder is then removed by a third operation.

HOLDS CHURCH RESPONSIBLE IF ITALY GOES 'RED'

"If Italy goes Communistic, it is because the Church of the Living God has failed in its mission there," the Rev. Floyd A. Carroll, pastor of the Gettysburg Methodist church, declared in a report Sunday evening on his recent two-month trip to Europe for the Brethren Service Committee.

He spoke at the second Methodist-Presbyterian Sunday Evening Hour of the season. His audience packed the Methodist church.

"I worshipped in the cathedrals of St. Peter and St. Paul and their wealth and splendor were overwhelming while their people lay outside their doors begging for food. The Catholic church there cannot say 'Silver and gold have I none.' Church-Service Relief Best

"The church, both Catholic and Protestant, in Italy is losing its hold on the people. The Methodist church in Italy is failing its people because instead of trying to meet their spiritual needs, it spends most of its time criticizing the shortcomings of the Catholics."

Church-Service relief from abroad, he declared, is more effective than either Friendship Trains or Marshall Plan aid. "I found no one who had received a gift from the Friendship Train—although of course many did benefit thereby, and the Marshall Plan sends its materials through the Italian government which dispenses (Please Turn To Page 8)

Troop 8 Brownies Will Be Advanced

Brownies of Troop No. 8 will "fly up" into Girl Scouting at a service October 25, it was announced today. Members of the troop have been learning bedmaking and table setting in the homes of their leaders, Mrs. Hardy Nichols, Emma R. To pass the test the Brownies must make their own bed at home each day and set the table at least once a day for a week.

Saturday the group practiced outdoor skills at a meeting held at the Daniel Paddock farm on the Fairfield road. This evening at their regular meeting they will be given an opportunity to pass additional tests. The Brownies must pass all requirements for the tenderfoot rank in Girl Scouting before they become Girl Scouts at the "fly-up" service.

Charges of larceny preferred against four Hanover youths, two of them juveniles, were withdrawn before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, at a hearing this morning, but the investigation of the theft of several blankets and some silverware from a cottage on the Heller farm, near Wenksville, was being continued by state police. A fifth boy is being sought.

The prosecutor was Julius Heller, New York city, one of the owners of the farm. The boys had picked apples on the Heller farm Thursday morning and left. The disappearance of the blankets and silverware was discovered later.

Charles Glatfelter and two others were arrested Saturday. Irvin Heyser was arrested Sunday. They were in jail until after the hearing this morning. The costs were paid by the prosecutor.

SIX STUDENTS FROM 'MOUNT' HURT IN CRASH

Six Mount Saint Mary's college students were injured this morning when the car in which they were returning to the Emmitsburg college from a week-end spent at their homes in Waterbury, Conn., crashed into a utility pole and then dropped into a drainage ditch.

State police of the Gettysburg sub-station, who are continuing their investigation into the mishap, said the car ran off the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road one mile north of here at 6:05 o'clock this morning. After the vehicle, owned and driven by George Perreault, 19, of Waterbury, ran off the road, it struck and broke off a United Telephone company pole, and came to a halt at the bottom of a five-foot roadside ditch.

Perreault, who is suffering from contusions, shock and possible internal injuries, remained as a patient at the Warner hospital as do Joseph Phalen, 20, and Richard Capozzi, 20. Phalen had multiple severe lacerations of the face and head and Capozzi had severe lacerations of the head.

Treated at the hospital were Robert Ruzzo, 19; William Cavanaugh, 18, and Thomas O'Day, 18. Russo had a mild concussion; Cavanaugh was cut about the knees, hands and elbows and O'Day had a slight cut on the top of his head.

Local Women Given 50-Year S. S. Medal

Mrs. Annie M. Wentz, 85, widow of William P. Wentz, York street, was one of 43 Pennsylvanians to be signally honored at the annual State Sunday School association convention last week at Williamsport.

She was among five of the 43 who were present to receive a medal from the state association in recognition of 50 years of continuous service in a Sunday school as an officer or teacher.

Wearing an orchid that was sent her by the Junior Department of St. James Lutheran Sunday school here where she ended 47 years of teaching last October, Mrs. Wentz received her medal from President John D. Duff, Pittsburgh, head of the state organization. Her first three years of Sunday school teaching were in the Methodist Sunday school at Hunterstown.

When she stopped teaching a year ago, she did not end her interest in Sunday school but attends regularly as a member of the Women's Bible class of St. James. Last year when she gave up her teaching duties she was presented with a Bible by the Sunday school at special services honoring her.

At Recognition Day exercises in St. James Sunday school here yesterday mention was made of Mrs. Wentz's honor at Williamsport and Bibles were handed to four other veterans of 25 years of service in Sunday school work: Mrs. Earl J. Rice Says Community Chest Agencies Needed In Town; Urges Financial Support

"The interesting thing about Gettysburg's Community Chest is the wide range of beneficial activities the six participating agencies encompass in their field of endeavor," John S. Rice, chairman of the current drive for $19,000 to finance these groups, said today.

"Each organization is a community project in itself in which the entire town derives some benefit. Therefore, a subscription to the Community Chest not only gives the participating agencies the funds with which to carry on their work but is an endorsement of their efforts. It also lends encouragement to those who give of their time, without remuneration, in seeing that the community enjoys the fruits of their labors."

"No one will deny that Gettysburg would suffer immeasurably if the participating agencies in the Community Chest did not exist. The work of the Civic Nursing Association, Boy and Girl Scouts, Adams County Free Library, Recreation Association and the YWCA opens a wide field of activity to practically every citizen of Gettysburg."

"When our workers call for donations to the Community Chest I earnestly appeal to the public-spirited citizens of Gettysburg to give as much as they possibly can. Their donations should be considered in the light of giving to six agencies, because each will share in whatever a donor gives," Chairman Rice said.

Workers continued their canvass of Gettysburg homes and business places today, the second day of the campaign.

Initial reports on the progress of the drive will be made Tuesday night at Philip Bickle's office, Baltimore street. Workers have been instructed to submit their first report at that time. The second report will be made Thursday and the third and final report will be received next Monday evening.

450-Pound Heifer Captured After Three Weeks' Freedom

Burton E. Tuckey's 50-pound heifer that had been enjoying its freedom for the past three weeks today sadly munched grass in the Tuckey pastures—its freedom destroyed by a mechanical age.

The animal decided to take to the high hills in search of liberty three weeks ago when it was being unloaded at the Tuckey farm along Biglerville R. 1. The driver of the truck who was helping unload the animals said, when the heifer moved away from the rest: "Let it go, it's tame." He was wrong.

From time to time over the past three weeks the Tuckeys and others made sporadic raids into the surrounding territory in order to bring the cow back to captivity. Each time they were foiled. Last Wednesday they tried and almost succeeded, but the weather favored the bovine and she skipped nimbly away while the men, drenched with rain, returned to their firesides.

Sunday afternoon bossy's bold bid for freedom ended. Seventeen men took part in the stalk, plus one jeep. It was the jeep that caused the cow's downfall. Rodney Taylor, driving the jeep, ran alongside the fast traveling bovine, and grabbed the animal's tail. Taylor with a cow in one hand and a jeep in the other found himself in an impossible situation for a moment, but he held on long enough, and slowed down the cow long enough for two other men to get near. Just as they were to grab the animal, it made a last bid to get away and slipped from Taylor's grasp. But it was too late for bossy. Taylor stopped the jeep and leaped out. The other two put on extra bursts of speed and the cow was caught.

Automobiles Collide On Sunday Morning

Automobiles operated by Paul S. Schultz, 54, of 355 High street, Hanover, and Norman C. Stremmel, 30, of Hanover R. 3, collided on the Hanover-Cross Keys road, two miles north of Hanover, at 12:15 o'clock Sunday morning, according to state police of the Gettysburg sub-station.

Police said that Stremmel was driving north toward Cross Keys and was struck by Schultz's car, which failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection of the Hanover road and the New Oxford-Bittinger road. No one was injured. Damage to Schultz's car was estimated at $25 and to Stremmel's car at $75. The investigation is being continued.

Police gave the son's name as Fred Karst, and said that on the application for the license, the father represented that the boy was 16. Police claimed he was only 15.

Joe T. Burke, Pottsville, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Robert Bell, Gettysburg R. 4, on a charge of speeding with a truck.

Forfeits Bail On Disorderly Count

Harvey Miller, Gettysburg R. 3, arrested by borough police at 12:10 a.m. Sunday morning on a disorderly conduct charge on Chambersburg street, posted forfeit bail of $10 and costs Sunday for a hearing today before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore and failed to appear for the hearing. The bail was forfeited.

FINAL ORDERS GIVEN IN TWO DAMAGE SUITS

A final order in the settlement of the action in trespass brought by Clarence E. Blocher, Gardners R. D., for his minor son, Edward Blocher, against Charles B. Bollinger, 60 Chambersburg street, was handed down Saturday by the county court.

The court directed that Bollinger pay $1,000 to the Gettysburg National bank as guardian for the child and that the bank pay from that amount $455.65 for doctors' bills, hospital bills and the like. The suit was brought as a result of an accident last year at Biglerville when Bollinger's vehicle struck and injured the child.

Attorney E. V. Bulleit was appointed by the court as master in the divorce action of Elmer F. Reynolds, New Oxford R. 1, versus Pauline Nina (Cassatt) Reynolds, New Windsor, Md.

OK Auditors' Report

Final settlement in the action brought by Dr. Fred H. and Elizabeth S. Lewis, Arendtsville, for their minor son, Robert T. Lewis, against O. P. Hudson, Gettysburg R. D., was permitted with the case discontinued after $750 for doctors' bills, hospital bills and pain and suffering by the child was paid. The Lewis youngster was struck by Hudson's vehicle in Arendtsville and injured.

The auditors' report on the accounts of the Gettysburg school district was confirmed by the court when no exceptions were filed following the usual procedure of advertising and giving due notice. The account lists income of $218,406.04 for the year ending July 5 and expenditures of $190,924.67, leaving a balance of $27,481.37. The sinking fund, according to the report, showed receipts of $4,428.15 and payment of $3,730 in redeeming bonds and interest, leaving a balance of $698.15.

An action in assumpsit was filed with the prothonotary Saturday by Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., for Lee's Distribution, Inc., of Baltimore, against Carlton B. Mumper, 139 North Washington street. The Baltimore concern is seeking reimbursement for furniture which it claims it sold Mumper during a period from February 5, 1947, to April 22, 1948, and for which it claims it has not been paid. Among the furniture for which it claims it was not paid are four chrome chairs, three chrome sets, three maple chests, six floor lamps, a mattress, a chifforobe and two kitchen cabinets.

Two Are Charged In Three-Car Crash

Ten-day notices have been sent by Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore to the drivers of two automobiles involved in a three-car accident on Buford avenue at 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

An automobile operated by Merlin D. Garrett, 41 McAlister street, Hanover, ran into the parked car of Charles E. Swisher, Buford avenue. A ten-day notice was sent to Garrett on a charge of reckless driving.

According to the borough police report, John Donnemeyer, Gettysburg R. 2, drove his car in the path of oncoming traffic and caused the accident. Garrett was forced to swerve to avoid hitting the Donnemeyer car, police said. A ten-day notice was sent to Donnemeyer for failing to yield the right of way.

Damage to Garrett's and Swisher's cars was estimated at $200 each.

Steals $3 Then Makes Restitution

James Bollinger, 22, of Midway, arrested by state police Saturday on a warrant sworn out by John Geubner, proprietor of the Midway Tavern, for larceny, made restitution when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Midway, and the charge was withdrawn.

Police said Bollinger was accused of stealing the pocketbook of Mrs. Kenneth Gerrick, York, a waitress at the Midway Tavern. He took the pocketbook, containing $38, outside the tavern, where he opened it and removed $3 in change, police said. He returned the money.

LEWIS IS VOTED $50,000 A YEAR BY UMW TODAY

By HAROLD W. WARD
Cincinnati, Oct. 11 (AP)—The United Mine Workers' convention today voted John L. Lewis a salary of $50,000 a year amid proposals that his pay be boosted to $75,000 or $100,000.

The union's constitution was amended to do it, as the salary of the president had been fixed at $25,000. Pay of vice-president Thomas Kennedy and Secretary-Treasurer John Owens were increased from $18,000 to $40,000 per year, respectively. The 30 members of the international executive board will get $1,000 a month under the convention action. They now receive $750 monthly.

Suggests $100,000
Delegates who wanted to talk on the salary proposals, including one who proposed that Lewis be given $100,000 income, were shouted down by the 3,000 delegates. The constitution committee set the $50,000 figure.

The committee encountered opposition to a proposal to boost monthly dues to $4 and some floor debate from the anthracite district delegates was anticipated.

Lewis opened the convention, taking no notice of the presence of President Truman in Cincinnati. Lewis assailed Mr. Truman during the past week in several speeches. Asked whether he had heard the president's breakfast speech to a Democratic rally in the same hotel, Lewis told a reporter: "I can't hear you."

Lewis remained in his room until the presidential party sped away to a railway station.

Lewis told the miners last week that Mr. Truman was a "malignant, scheming sort of individual," and that he "is unfit for the position" of president. His attacks were based on Mr. Truman's use of injunction to halt coal strikes.

SAYS DEWEY IS DODGING ISSUES

Cincinnati, Oct. 11 (AP)—President Truman said today that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey refused "to tell the country where he stands on any of the issues" in which "the people are interested."

He did not mention the Republican standard bearer by name, but said the "Republican candidate" had made "a good many headlines with talk about unity," but "he won't tell the country where he stands on any of the issues" the people want to hear about.

Mr. Truman spoke at a Democratic breakfast rally in the hall of mirrors in the Netherland-Plaza hotel.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, was a guest of the same hotel. Lewis has assailed the President and his UMW has indirectly endorsed Governor Dewey.

Speaking in the home town of Senator Taft (R-Ohio), the President said Taft had "dispelled any hope that the Republican party will follow a liberal course."

"I like him personally," Mr. Truman said. "I know where he stands, which is more than you can say about some of the other Republicans." Taft stands for welfare at the top, not at the bottom.

Court Refuses To Review Decision

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to review a decision that an employer must bargain with a union before he gives "merit raises" to individual workers.

The decision was given by the U. S. Circuit Court in Cincinnati in a case affecting J. H. Allison and Company, Chattanooga meat packers. The Circuit Court ruled 2 to 1 that the National Labor Relations Act requires bargaining on merit increases.

The refusal of the Supreme Court to review the case has the effect of upholding the decision.

The company asked the Supreme Court to reverse the Circuit Court. It explained that for 16 years it had been accustomed to giving merit raises to individual workers, without notifying employe or union. The practice was protested by an AFL meat cutter's union.

HELD IN SHOOTING
Milford, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—John Middleton, owner of the Coconut valley inn, was free in bail today to await trial on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill. Middleton was released yesterday in $3,000 bail in connection with the shooting of Richard Griswald, 37, of Tracy Creek, N. Y., in his tavern Tuesday night.

DRIVER HELD IN DEATH
Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—Clarence R. Lingle, 25, of nearby Grantville, was held under $2,200 bail today on charges of hit and run and involuntary manslaughter in the death of a pedestrian. The victim was identified by police as Otto Marhold, 68, of Potomac, N. Y. Lingle was arrested by State Policemen Charles N. Croft shortly after the accident Saturday night.

NEW RUSSIAN WARNINGS ON GUN PRACTICE

Berlin, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Russians warned again today of fighter flights and gunnery practice in the air corridors used by British and American planes supplying blockaded Berlin.

This is the second consecutive week of Soviet air maneuvers which some sources say are connected with extensive Red army war games.

Meanwhile Russian soldiers guarding a road blockade shot at a German truck and German passenger car attempting to pass through the blockade from Hamburg. The truck and its cargo were confiscated but the car and its occupants escaped.

Tighten Controls
The shooting came after the Russians tightened traffic controls on the outskirts of the blockaded city to close leaks. They claimed to have confiscated thousands of tons of food from western Berliners who had obtained the food by barter with Soviet zone farmers. The Soviets call this trade "smuggling."

The Russians admitted that important industries in their occupation zone have been hit by the western powers' counter-blockade.

A report on the third quarter of this year by the German economic commission of the Soviet zone yesterday conceded that production goals were not being met in several fields.

Lagging steel and metals production was blamed on lack of machinery which formerly came from western Germany.

DEWEY TALKS ACROSS PENNA.

En Route with Dewey to Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey barnstormed across Pennsylvania today, holding in reserve a possible public blast at President Truman's handling of the Vinson incident.

The Republican presidential nominee let Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.) put into words what Dewey himself apparently would like to have said openly but decided not to do because of its world effect.

Vandenberg declared in a New York city speech last night that Mr. Truman's abandoned plan to send Chief Justice Vinson for personal negotiations with Premier Stalin involved a "narrow escape" from singlehanded action that could have crippled United Nations handling of the Berlin crisis.

The attitude among the Republicans—evidently shared by Dewey—was that Mr. Truman had made a desperate blunder that might have had tragic effects around the world.

It further was said to be Dewey's view that he—as the possible next president—must try to salvage American prestige.

For several years Mr. and Mrs. Martz and their family resided at Guernsey during which time Mrs. Martz was active in work of the Biglerville United Brethren church.

NEWSPAPER IS STARTED TODAY

Los Angeles, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Mirror, the west's newest metropolitan daily, began publication today with a world-wide roundup of opinion on peace or war.

Gen. Lucius Clay, Mexico's President Aleman, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, George Bernard Shaw, Henry Wallace, Winston Churchill, Trygve Lie, Jawaharlal Nehru, Italian Premier Des Gasperi, W. Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan-ambassador at large, President Ismet Inonu of Turkey and President Peron of Argentina were those asked the question:

"How great is the danger of another World war and how best can it be prevented?"

Commented the newspaper: "Their answers, summarized, are a message of extreme worry but underlying hope. The majority feel the Berlin crisis SHOULD NOT lead to war. But it MAY."

Stalin, Molotov and leaders of Soviet satellites ignored invitations to participate, the paper said.

Baltimore, Oct. 11 (AP)—A converted B-29 roared off the Glenn L. Martin airport at 9:30 a. m. today to relay the televised version of the sixth game of the World Series to the midwest.

A Westinghouse Electric Co. spokesman here said the plane would hover over Pittsburgh at 25,000 feet, picking up television signals from a Baltimore station and relaying them to a Cleveland station (WEWS).

Bullets Spring Surprise On Bucknell With 13-0 Victory; Sachs' Passing Steals Show

After taking the best Bucknell's football team could give, the Gettysburg college gridgers rallied in the final quarter to win, 13-0, and remain undefeated and untied before 6,000 at Lewisburg Saturday.

Few Gettysburg supporters would have given much for the Bullets' chances in the first quarter as the heavier Bucknell forward wall opened large holes in the Gettysburg line to permit the hard-charging Bison backs to gallop through for huge chunks of yardage.

But courage is one of the many things that this 1948 football edition of Gettysburg college has plenty of and it never showed to better advantage than on Saturday. With the line outweighed ten pounds per man and the backfield even more.

Bullets screwed their courage to sticking point, stood the power and the drive of the Bisons for almost three quarters, and then nearly blasted them out of spacious Memorial Stadium with as tricky a running and passing attack as a Bream-anchored team has unleashed against any Lewisburg eleven.

Bucknell supporters looked on in disbelief as the small Orange and blue gridgers went to work. With Ross Sachs calling plays that even kept scouts and the press box guessing, the Bullets dispelled the Bison threat with better running and passing than any Gettysburg team has shown since football was revived at Gettysburg in 1946.

Griffiths Runs 49

Junie Griffiths set up the first score when he sprinted 49 yards to Bucknell's 12 after taking a shovel pass from Sachs. An aerial, Sachs to Emert, put the ball on the 1. After running plays by Tony Cervino lost two yards, Sachs faked a handoff to Cervino and circled deep to the left, evaded the Bucknell right end, and passed to Don Emert, who was all alone in the end zone.

Led by their spectacular sophomore back Jim Ostendarp, the Bucknell eleven charged back with an attack that carried to the Gettysburg 40 before it stalled. Dwight Speaker took Leach's punt on the Bullet seven and returned to the 14 where the Breamites started again.

Ditty Jones, on a hand-off from Sachs, gained six. Playing a wide open game and showing plenty of confidence in his ability to click, Sachs tossed a forward to Bob McCausland, who carried for 19. After several plays picked up three, another Sachs-McCausland aerial was good for 11 to Bucknell's 48. Jones lost eight on a wide shovel pass to the right, but Sachs tossed to Bud Cauffman for 20 to Bucknell's 36.

Bisons Bewildered

With Bucknell seemingly powerless, to stop the Gettysburg aerial game, Sachs hit McCausland with another pass for six more yards. After Jones had carried for a first down in two line plays, Speaker, on a deep reverse from Sachs, went to his left, cut back to the right and dashed down the field for the second Bullet six-pointer. Martin Pavelle threw the key block when he cut down what appeared to be a certain tackler. Atherholt's placement was good.

Sachs and his ball-handling ability was one of the many Gettysburg highlights. Unable to click in the first half, when opposing linemen many times were in on him before he had a chance to get the pass away, Ross completed nine passes in 12 attempts, in the second half, threw for one touchdown, and completed passes for 50 yards in the second touchdown drive. Improved line play after the intermission was the factor that improved Sachs' passing.

The running of Speaker, Griffiths, Jones and Cervino was another highlight. Bud Musselman, who gained the most yardage against Bucknell in Gettysburg's 1947 7-0 win, was stopped on the offense but he coupled with Gene Hummel, Mike Erbilo, Jim Lentz and Jack Gilligan to back up the line in fine style.

The line play of guards Al Reese, Les Ginanni, Andy Natale and Tom Gallagher, and tackles Pavelle, Jake Schlegel, Jack Love and Dudley Tremble was superb after the intermission. McCausland, Cauffman and Bob Court stood out on the defense at end while McCausland, Emert and Cauffman were good pass receivers.

Gettysburg travels to Bethlehem next Saturday to play Lehigh university and will be gunning for its fourth straight triumph.

STATE'S BIG 3 TURN IN WINS ON GRIDIRON

(By The Associated Press)

The scoreboard glittered today with the report of week-end football victories for Pennsylvania, Penn State and Pittsburgh.

Not for many moons have the three giants of Keystone state football posted triumphs in one week-end of football. All three were impressive as Penn thumped Princeton 29-7, Penn State bounced Syracuse 34-14 and Pitt downed West Virginia 16-6.

Penn unwound a bit and shed a few wraps in beating a good Princeton team. George Munger apparently is keeping much of his attack hidden for stronger foes ahead. Penn showed a fullback in Ray Doo-ney who can crack that line, a passer in Carmen Falcone who looked faintly like Sid Luckman in a brief fling at some T-formation passing.

Penn State bounced Syracuse Friday night with Elwood Petchell, Frank Rogel and Wally Triplett showing the form expected in pre-season dope sheets.

Penn-Penn State Game Looms

It begins to appear that the November 6 meeting between Penn and Penn State may go a long way toward determining the mythical national football title.

Mike Milligan's Pitt team showed it can be rough against a better-than-fair West Virginia team. Jimmy Joe Robinson, a fleet Negro back, was very impressive in the Panther triumph.

In other major Pennsylvania battles:

Muhlenberg found Scranton tougher than expected and had to come from behind with a stirring fourth period rally that won the game 18-14 and extended the Mules' unbeaten string to three.

Villanova rallied in the second half to defeat Miami 19-10 Friday night and Lebanon Valley showed surprising strength in overpowering Hofstra 41 to 0.

Upset By Bullets

Ivy Williamson's Lafayette gridmen turned on their power in overcoming Washington and Jefferson 56 to 15. Next Saturday's Lafayette-Muhlenberg clash should be a real battle.

Gettysburg upset the dope books with a 13-0 victory over Bucknell while Lehigh's Carnegie Tech lost again—this time to Marietta, by 21-7. East Stroudsburg, Clarion and Bloomsburg kept pace at the fore of Pennsylvania's teacher colleges.

Stroudsburg overcame Shippensburg 14-7, Clarion turned back Rio Grande 25-0 and Bloomsburg scored over Kings 26-0.

These were other scores involving Pennsylvania teams: Rutgers 34, Temple 20; Allegheny 14, Susquehanna 0; Haverford (with Ted Test scoring 25 points) 26, Ursinus 12; Slippery Rock 20, Edinboro 0; Delaware 19, West Chester 0; Lehigh 45, Drexel 0; P.M.C. 38, Swarthmore 26; Brockport 12, Lycoming 6; Delaware State 7, Lincoln 6; Grove City 16, Geneva 7; Wilkes 28, National Farm 13; Westminster 0, Thiel 0 (tie); Mansfield 31, Kutztown 13; Cheyney 6, Minor State 0; Franklin and Marshall 12, Dickinson 6; Juniata 7, Alliance 0; California 14, Indiana 12; St. Vincent 14, Steubenville 0, and St. Francis 14, Mt. St. Mary's 0.

Redskins Upset

The Cardinals got back on the winning trail against the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee. Relying almost entirely on a ground attack the Chicago club whipped the Packers, 17-7.

Philadelphia's Eastern division champions found the right combination in a hard charging line and the accurate passing of Tommy Thompson to score their first victory of the year, 45-0, over the New York Giants.

Pittsburgh moved into a tie with Washington for the Eastern division lead by upsetting the Redskins, 10-7. The winning three points came on a field goal by Joe Giamp in the final 28 seconds. He had tried five others without success.

Results of the first round matches of the golf championship tournament at the Gettysburg Country club now in progress were announced today.

First Flight — Philip Jones defeated Thomas Cline, 6 and 5; Glenn L. Bream defeated Dr. Charles Drumm, 4 and 3; Kermit Deardorff defeated Henry T. Bream, 5 and 4; John G. Glenn defeated Robert Derck, 5 and 4.

The third and deciding game will be played next Sunday afternoon on the diamond at Middleburg, Md.

Delone Gains 4th Triumph

Delone Catholic high's gridgers copped a 20-0 decision over St. Francis Prep of Spring Grove in a game played Sunday afternoon at McSherrytown. The victory was the fourth in five starts for the Squires.

In the first period of yesterday's game Delone received a punt and drove 45 yards for a touchdown, with Murren scoring on a play that began at the 1-yard line. Small added a point after touchdown Delone plunge. Later in the period Delone began a drive on the St. Francis Prep 42 and the attack ended in a touchdown scored by Small on a two-yard plunge on the second play of the second period. Again Small tallied an extra point on a plunge.

Breen of St. Francis Prep ran 90 yards to reach the goal line before the first half ended but the play was called back and St. Francis Prep's team was penalized for clipping.

Late in the third period Delone recovered the ball at the St. Francis Prep 2-yard line on an inaccurate pass from center. Delone fumbled and lost eight yards but on the next play Murren took a pass from B. Smith behind the goal line for a touchdown.

FELLER BEATEN AGAIN; BRAVES DEFY OLD JINX

By JACK HAND

Boston, Oct. 11 (AP)—Billy Southworth's aroused Boston Braves gamble on Bill Voiselle to square the world series against Cleveland's Bob Lemon today as the clubs return to Braves field for the sixth game.

Taking new hope from the home run blasts that routed Bobby Feller in yesterday's 11-5 victory, the Braves continue to defy the old jinx that says teams do not come back after losing three of the first four. After closing the Indians' game lead to 3-2, the Braves were so confident of sweeping two or more that Southworth even announced his seventh game pitcher—Johnny Sain.

Voiselle finished the regular season with 13-13 record and a job in the bullpen as a relief man.

In his lone series appearance, he gave up only one single in 3 2/3 innings after replacing Vern Bickford in the fourth inning of Friday's game, won 2-0 by Cleveland behind Gene Bearden.

Any Pitcher May Do

It may turn out the Braves' pitching will not be too important. Their attack had as much zing as a soggy firecracker until they tore Feller to shreds in full view of 86,288 people, the largest throng ever to see a ball game. If the Braves can hit like that, Voiselle or Barrett or most any pitcher who can get the ball over will have no trouble.

This tremendous crowd that jammed every inch of available space in the gigantic Municipal Stadium felt its first shock early. Its high hopes of being "in" on the Indians' first series triumph since 1920 were punctured by Bob Elliott's three-run homer that dropped in the right field standing room crowd in the first inning.

Dale Mitchell's leadoff homer in the first against the veteran Nelson Potter revived hope. Elliott's second blast in the third inning, this time into the left field seats, sold the idea that Mr. Feller was in for a rough afternoon.

End For Potter

A few early birds started premature celebrations in the fourth after Jim Hegan unloaded a homer with two on to climax a four-run blast that flattened Potter.

By that time, the Braves had knocked out Feller, Ed Kileman and Russ Christopher before "Satchel" Paige, the ancient negro with the "hesitation" pitch, ambled in to stop the riot with six runs across.

Elliott was the big wheel, driving in four runs.

Tommy Holmes, who beat Feller in the opener with his eighth-inning single, again found "cousin" Robert most helpful. He singled and rode home on Elliott's first homer and his second single started the big inning that ended Feller's black Sunday.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
RECHARGING

The human spirit gets low, just like the battery in one's car. It needs recharging at such a time. Inspirationally, let us say. That is the main purpose of these daily talks — and it has been thus for all these years that they have been written. If they have failed in that, they have failed wholly.

Our mind needs periodic recharging in order to keep it alert and alive. And so does the human spirit. The reading of inspiring literature does it. So does the encouragement that we give to others — and so does daily prayer.

I shall never forget the kindness of a friend to whom I went when I became very discouraged, during my college career, and was about to give up and quit. I went to this man, and he so charged the battery of my spirit that I went back and finished my course.

How many a friend we have sought out, during a time of trouble, or confusion of mind, that we might have that friend recharge our spirit and set it functioning happily again. That is one of the high offices of a friend.

We move. We go forward with a full charged spirit. We then have power of mind and courage of heart. We can pick up passengers, as well and give them a recharged spirit, so effective is this personal recharging.

With a newly recharged spirit we go to our work with zest and hope, full of faith in the performance of our tasks, and enlivening the spirit of everyone with whom we came in contact. It's a dark and gloomy day for that one whose spirit is run down, and sorely in need of recharging.

We can never measure the real worth of the encouragement that we give to others. Often it has lifted a burden and given new determination. Many a worker, through it, has climbed the heights. All great leaders have this gift of recharging the faith of their followers.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Ownership."

GOOD BABY

In the play pen kicking things
Toy balloons and painted rings;
Twisting, squirming, hands in air,
Plainly quite contented there!
Find more rapture, no one could
Than a baby when he's good.

Little body firm and stout,
Wondering what this life's about.
Every day it seems that he Happier, wiser grows to be.
Take a million, no one would
For a baby when he's good.

"Wonderful!" the grandpas say
As they sit to watch him play.
"You are lucky to be sent Such a baby, so content."
Proud and grateful he, you should,
For the baby when he's good."

NAVY TO POST SUBMARINES AS RADAR PICKETS

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—A new unit in the nation's defenses will start operating next month—a submarine with radar "eyes" to detect any hostile planes attempting a sneak approach across such remote places as the Polar seas.

The Navy announced today that the submarine Tigrone, taken from the Reserve fleet and converted into the first radar picket submarine, will be commissioned November 1.
The Tigrone had varied service during World War II, including the rescue of 52 drowned aviators from enemy waters and the bombardment of Japanese shore targets.

She is the first of two such pickets to be converted under the naval modernization program. The second submarine has not been designated. The two presumably will be prototypes for others which will make up a whole chain of pickets for areas that may need watching.

To Use "Schnorkel"

The idea is that submarine pickets can cruise into the far north through water impossible for surface craft and take station on a radar watch for strange aircraft.
At the first "sight" of approaching planes, the sub would radio its report and then submerge. It would resurface when the danger of being spotted had passed.

It is understood the conversion included fitting her out with the "schnorkel," a German - designed breathing device which enables a submarine to remain submerged for virtually unlimited periods.

The Schnorkel's breathing tube—which features a small air intake unit at the surface—supplies oxygen for both crew and Diesel engines.
The surface unit is too small to be detected by the average radar set or to be seen at any distance.

The Tigrone, of a class built in 1941-42, is a 1,500-ton boat, 311 feet long. When operating on wartime patrols, she carried a crew of about 85 men and officers. She was fitted with ten 21-inch torpedo tubes.
There was no mention of these tubes having been removed in the reconversion.

YOUTH PROGRAM OF ULCA UP FOR CONSIDERATION

Philadelphia, Oct. 11 (AP)—Revision of the youth program of the United Lutheran Church in America was up for consideration before the 16th biennial convention today.
A church spokesman predicted
"there will be heated opposition" to at least one of the proposals.

The controversy, he said, will result from a recommendation of a committee that the Luther League of America be placed under the direction of a proposed secretary-executive secretary of the Parish and School board. The Parish and School board is an adult-dominated body in the church, he explained.

Big Budget Pending

The ULCA, representing some 1-800,000 members in 32 synods in the United States, Canada and four U.S. territories, will conclude its sessions this week after it acts on a proposal for the largest budget in its history.
The recommendations of the church executive board of the church suggest a total of approximately $5-000,000 for 1950 and the same for 1951.

At its convention in Cleveland in 1946, the church voted to double its $2,750,000 budget for 1948, in observance of its 30th anniversary.

At a mass meeting, attended by some 3,000 in the academy of music, last night the Lutherans heard a plea for unification of all Lutheran churches by the president of another group of Lutherans.

EX - ROUSTABOUT ELECTROCUTED

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—William Ramage, 30, former circus roustabout who evaded arrest for eight years, died early today in the electric chair for the slaying of a Philadelphia garage owner.

Dr. Ralph Carrier, physician at nearby Rockview state penitentiary, said Ramage died at 12:33 a. m.
(EST), three minutes after entering the death chamber.

Ramage, convicted last December in Philadelphia in the gun killing of Charles Blase, was the 313th person to be electrocuted at the penitentiary.

He broke his calm indifference as he entered the death chamber. At the door he paused and closed his eyes tightly. He kept them closed as executioner Frank L. Wilson of Pittsburgh adjusted the chair straps and as he slowly repeated prayers after the Rev. John P. Hacala, Catholic chaplain.

Ramage's plea for life imprisonment instead of death was rejected by the state pardon board. The convicted man argued he had been drinking and could not remember shooting Blase. He said he refused to plead guilty after a district attorney offered to recommend life imprisonment if he made that plea.
Thomas McGrory pleaded guilty to slaying Blase. He is now serving a life sentence.

difference between Lutherans in ting together," declared the Rev.

P. O. Bersell of Minneapolis, president of the Augustana Lutheran synod.

Dr. Bersell, who attended the world council of churches in Amsterdam, said one of the results of that meeting "will be a gathering together of the great church families of the world."

"Let us Lutherans show the way.
Let us unite—today. Tomorrow is not ours."

There are nine different Lutheran church branches, with a total membership of more than 5,000,000.

"The world must be given a vision of what the church is," he said adding: "We have too many self-supporting congregations that are also self-contained."

CALLA LILIES GOOD IN HOUSE

Callas, often called calla lilies, are very satisfactory winter-blooming house plants if the gardener can provide a sunny window where the night temperature ranges between 55 and 65 degrees.

Such temperatures are not uncommon even where the room thermostat is set to 65 degrees for the night, as the air close to the window always is several degrees cooler than the room itself. This holds true where storm sashes are present, but of course, there must be no radiator right below the window frame.

Depending on the size of the roots, from one to three may be potted up in a six-inch container, and the time to start them is right now. Provide ample drainage in the bottom and fill with porous soil enriched with well rotted manure or pulverized cow manure as a substitute.
Water after planting and keep warm until growth begins. When the leaves expand water daily but empty the saucer regularly an hour or two after each application. Beginning in December give weak liquid fertilizer at two-week intervals.

Garden Activities For Mid-October

Rose planting time is approaching.
If you contemplate having a rose garden, order the plants immediately for planting next month and prepare the beds now. Also prepare the soil for planting tulip bulbs.

Order deciduous trees and shrubs for late October and November planting.

Now is the time to plant evergreens.

Prepare the ground now for the planting of sweet peas next month.
Cut peony plants back to the ground. Destroy the tops.

Blueberries may be moved successfully this month.

Help to diminish insect attacks on next year's crops by cleaning the garden of crop remnants such as old vines, stalks and decayed vegetables. Many insect pests feed on this debris in late fall.

To protect fruit-trees from mice, attach wire guards around the base.

Winter covering of outdoor plants is some weeks off but it is important to plan this work in advance and to have the materials on hand.

If your house plants show signs of scale or other insect injury, wash the leaves thoroughly but gently with a soft brush and soap and water with pyrethrum or nicotine added.

OFFER TERMS ON NEW AGREEMENT

Paris, Oct. 11 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France said today they are "not unwilling" to accept a Berlin settlement calling for combined lifting of the blockade and meeting of the Big Four Foreign Ministers Council on the whole German question.

A British-American spokesman told reporters this was the sense of a note delivered by the Western powers to Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Atilio Bramuglia, who has been heading up a six-nation effort to mediate the East-West deadlock in the United Nations Security Council over Berlin.

The spokesman said the note primarily was a restatement of the basic principles the Western powers would like to see embodied in a security settlement of the Berlin stalemate. This indicated strongly the Western powers are not prepared to enter any direct negotiations with Russia over Berlin, which is what the Kremlin wants.

There was, however, no immediate indication of Russia's attitude on this idea. This, it is assumed, is because Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky is waiting for instructions from the Kremlin. He transmitted to Moscow Friday a set of questions put to him by Bramuglia, informants said.

Bramuglia saw Dr. Philip C. Jessup of the United States, Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain, and Alexandre Parodi of France yesterday and asked them a number of similar questions.

COMMUNISM BORING INTO U.S. SCHOOLS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The United States is beginning to wake up to the fact that one of Communism's productive fields of labor is the public school and university, where all too often the young crusading mind may be captivated by the specious Red promises of a Utopian world.

Further proof of this awakening is found in the action of the Baltimore school board in upholding its superintendent in dismissing Mrs. Regina Frankfeld as a teacher because she is a Communist. Mrs. Frankfeld, whose husband, Philip, is head of the Maryland-District of Columbia Communist party, told the board after the decision:

"I am a member of the Communist party. I admit it. I am proud of it. Nobody will question my loyalty."

Before the board voted on the question, President Roszel C. Thomson said: "No doubt Mrs. Frankfeld is a skillful teacher. The more skillful she is, the better she can serve world Communism. No one who supports Communism can be a proper person to teach in our schools."

With that let's drop Mrs. Frankfeld and consider in general terms the question of Communism in our schools. How great is the threat?

Hitler Did It

There is an old saying that human nature can't be changed—a fine sounding axiom which is less than half a truth. Human nature can in major degree be changed, and the way to do it is to catch your subjects young. Hitler demonstrated that to the N-th degree by the manner in which he took over the children and youth of Germany and changed them into willing slaves of his barbaric regime. He did that in the brief six years between the date he came to power in 1933 and the launching of the world war in '39.

Somebody has said that youth always is in a state of rebellion against established things—always is ready for adventure with new ideas. Hitler took advantage of that. He staged a great show, with marching troops and flying banners. He held out promises of a wonderful new world.

And German youth fell for it—many of the older people, for that matter.

Broadly speaking those are the tactics being employed by Communism. As a matter of fact, it seems highly probable that Hitler got his ideas about training youth from the Redism. One of the major points in both systems was to destroy belief in religion, so as to make way for evil beliefs.

Fifty Autos Light Runway For Plane

Bradford, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—The headlights of 50 automobiles were used to light up the Mt. Alton, Pa., airfield last night to enable two fliers to land their small plane.

The plane, piloted by Tyler E. Leslie, of Port Allegheny, Pa., circled for an hour above the airfield.

SENATE RACES DRAWING HEAVY VOTER INTEREST

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—Next to the Presidency, the Senate races this year are receiving more attention than any other election battles. In some instances they are even overshadowing the Dewey-Truman duel.

The reason is this: The question of which party will control the next Senate hinges on 11 or 12 contests. They are in the border states after the north and west.

So important are these campaigns regarded by party leaders that both Presidential and vice-Presidential candidates have appeared in most of the Senate race states in person. They will speak in others before Election Day.

Different Estimates

The present Senate is made up of 51 Republicans and 45 Democrats. A net gain of four for the Democrats would win back control which the GOP captured with a 12-seat turn-over in 1946.

Many public claims have been made by both parties. But private estimates—made to a reporter by a Republican and Democrat whose job it is to keep abreast of the Senate scraps—size up the situation this way as of today:

The Republican believes his party will keep control. He sees a probable loss of two seats—in Oklahoma and Minnesota, with Wyoming's contest hanging in the balance. But he says there is a fifty-fifty chance of winning two Democratic seats in Tennessee and New Mexico. All the other seven races that figure in the calculations are safe for the GOP, in this campaign official's opinion.

The Democrat figures his party can win four seats from the Republicans—in West Virginia, Oklahoma, Minnesota, and Wyoming—but Senate control may hinge on whether Senator Murray (D) can pull through in Montana.

Two Brothers Die In Plane Crash

Brigeton, N. J., Oct. 11 (AP)—Two brothers were killed yesterday when the small plane in which they were riding crashed into a farm field near here.

The dead were identified as John C. Williams, 22, and his brother, Moody, 20, both farm workers of Deerfield, N. J.

The plane was engulfed in flames before rescue parties could reach the scene. When volunteer firemen put out the fire, the men were found dead.

State police said the pair had rented the plane at Cavoli airport, Buena, N. J., and that John Williams had been taking pilot training for the past year.

TWO KILLED ON PLANE SEARCH

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Two men were killed in the crash of their converted Army plane while searching for another plane that had been reported missing.

A short time after the crash last night the missing plane landed safely on a flight from Morgantown, W. Va., to Connellsville, Pa.

State police identified the crash victims as James Soxman, 25, Maestown, Pa., and John Zacksek, 34, of Royal, Pa.

Their plane, a P19, crashed into some treetops a few miles south of nearby High House 30 minutes after the two men had taken off on their search mission.

State police said Soxman was an electrician employed at the Robena soft coal mine while Zacksek was a coke oven worker at Alice, near Brownsville.

Both men held pilot's licenses, state police said, but Soxman's body was found in the front cockpit—the position from which a plane of that type normally is flown.

Chapter 17
Kevin waved to him madly from where she stood in front of the college's Moorish-type administration building. As she scrambled into the car, she asked, "Where we going?"

"South of the border," said Walter James.
"But why are we going to Mexico? And why me along, Walter?"
"You ask more questions than I do, redhead," he observed.

"I know. But why?"
"I have to see a man in Tijuana. You have to get me there."
"Turn right on El Cajon and go down to Jackson Grammar school. Then left there to National City. Then down on we can't miss. Now why am I really along?"
"Maybe I just wanted to have you here." She tucked her feet under her and pushed across the seat until she was close enough to put her arms around his elbow. With one ear on his shoulder pad, Kevin exhaled a long and artificial sigh. "And then again, maybe I need you to drive back."

The girl looked up at him. "Are you going to stay down there?"
"I don't intend to settle. But talking to your guardian angel last night, he told me about this big operator in Tijuana—a guy that knows pretty much about everything that goes on in both towns. I thought I'd drop in and see what he has to say." He paused a moment. "He may not care for me."

"Oah!" she murmured and giggled excitedly.
"What?"
"This is my first adventure."

It was high noon when he rolled the car over the ramshackle bridge that led into the sweltering border town.
"It looks like Tuesday isn't the big day here," said Walter James. "Know where the Devil's Bar is?"

"I think I've been there. Turn at the Foreign club. It's down that street, to the right. Oh, I hope you find out something, Walter!"
"It's about time," he said flatly. "Hal will start thinking I'm a wash-out as a partner."

Kevin patted his wrist. "I keep forgetting that your two best friends have been killed," she said softly. "I've never told you how sorry I am. I really am."

The slight detective pressed his lips together. "Ethel may not be completely lost—there are other answers. Amnesia. They may be holding her. She may be running away from them and not able to get in touch with me. She may have learned whatever Hal knew and is afraid to come out of hiding. She doesn't have to be dead."

"There it is!" she pointed. "That blue and red sign!"
He unstrapped his shoulder holster, locking it and the 32 in the glove compartment.
"Mightn't there be trouble?" asked Kevin innocently. "Please don't let anything happen to you."

He smiled. "I think this is a spot where I'll be welcomed without it." He pushed a kiss against the end of her nose. "Kevin, tell me something. I'm going to mention Shasta Lynn in my interview here—just on the last mad chance she's got a finger in this. I'll need to know which nights your father was away from home. Then at least I'll know which nights she was clear."

Kevin clamped her teeth on her lower lip.
"There's nothing to worry about," he added as he saw her jumbled expression. "Your father's absolutely safe. It's just that I have to know everything. Trust me."

"I trust you, darling. It was Tuesday night last week. Wednesday night the week before that—and Friday before that. That's all the farther back I go."

"Thanks, redhead. That'll be enough. I probably won't get a chance to even use it."

They crawled out of the car and walked arm in arm to the Devil's Bar. The cycloramic walls of the room were raw adobe muraled with an American artist's idea of a Mexican Hades. Virile devils roared half stripped senoritas over strangely frozen flames. Other, more functional, devils wrestled with other, more fortunate, senoritas.

He was about to comment to Kevin when one swarthy bartender stirred and glided toward them.

"Two tequila stingers," he said instead.

"Are the pictures supposed to increase the body temperature so we'll buy more drinks?" Kevin whispered wickedly.

"Never use them," Walter James said. The bartender grunted and motioned him toward a door. He walked through it unattended.

19 KILLED IN ACCIDENTS OVER WEEK-END IN PA.

(By The Associated Press)
An airplane crash and a series of other accidents resulted in the deaths of at least 19 persons in Pennsylvania over the week-end.
The plane crash occurred Sunday night near Uniontown while two fliers were searching for another airplane missing in West Virginia.
The victims were identified as James Soxman, 25, of Masontown, and John Zacksek, 34, of Royal. The other planes landed safely a short time after Soxman and Zacksek were killed in the treetop crash of their converted army P-19.

Babe Drowns
One of the week-end deaths was that of 14-months-old Joseph G. La-Rocca of Carlisle, who drowned at Letort Spring Saturday when he wandered away from his parents for a short time.

Michelle de Vos, 11-year-old French boy who came to the U. S. with his parents a year ago, was killed Sunday by a Pennsylvania railroad electric train as he played on a North Philadelphia bridge.

A 64-year-old janitor, Thomas Yumin of Peanut, was killed by an automobile as he crossed a street near his Westmoreland county home. Ignatius Little, 40, fell from a rooftop to his death. He died in Pittsburgh hospital.

Burned By Splashed Metal
Martin Sullivan, 51, East Pittsburgh, died in West Penn hospital of burns suffered when splashed by molten metal at the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel company.

William J. Vanderveen, 41, Oxford, N. J., died in Reading hospital of injuries suffered in a collision between his automobile and a tractor trailer near Reading.

Raymond Martin, 43, Selinsgrove, plunged 50 feet to his death when a rope supporting a scaffold snapped. Martin was working on a construction project at Shamokin dam. Preston E. Thomas, 26, of Baltimore, Md., a truck driver, was killed when the brakes of his truck failed while going down Tuscarora mountain near McConnellsburg. Two others were hurt.

Other Victims
William J. Fredey, 32, Erie, was killed as his car left a road near Crossville, smashed through a guard rail and turned over. His wife was injured critically.
A 78-year-old grocer, Charles Vogel, died two hours after he was struck by a car in Wyomissing. He was a native of Williamsport.

William M. Murphy, of Moween, Pa., was killed Saturday night by a Pennsylvania railroad train near the Saltsburg, Pa., railroad station while on his way home from work. Mrs. Florence Braun, 50, Pittsburgh, was killed by a car while crossing the street.

Lauds Arbitration In Labor Disputes

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP) — A government mediation official today scolded the "chronic bellyachers and spoil-sports" in industry and labor who attack the integrity of arbitrators when an award goes against them.

Peter Seitz, general counsel of the federal mediation and conciliation service, told the American Trucking Associations, Inc., this practice weakens the arbitration system—"one of the most effective instruments for promoting industrial peace."

In an address prepared for ATA's 15th anniversary convention, Seitz said he is "appalled" by the attitude of some persons after they have called upon the government to provide impartial private citizens for arbitration duty.

ATA President Ed J. Buhner told the group's more than 2,000 trucking executives in his annual report yesterday that the effect of the Taft-Hartley act has been "all that its authors hoped for" so far as the trucking industry is concerned.

$2,000,000 Blaze In Manila Compound

Manila, Oct. 11 (AP)—A spectacular fire today destroyed three American owned business establishments in the Philippine Education company compound.

The fire chief estimated damage at $2,000,000.
The fire wiped out the Singer Sewing company branch, the McCullough Printing company plant, and a firm handling books, papers and Christmas toys.

The general alarm blaze threatened a hospital at one time and was described by fishermen as the worst since the burning of Manila three years ago in the war.

"GIVE-AWAYS" MAY BE DOOMED

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—The days of the give away radio program are numbered, says an advertising expert.

There has been "a regular orgy of free goods" on radio programs and the question has arisen among advertising men whether it meets standards of good taste in advertising, say H. H. Kynett, president of the Aitken-Kynett Advertising agency.

Kynett told the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association that "it must be decided whether it is for the general good of the distribution system of which we are a part. Personally," he commented, "I think this will result in the discontinuance of the give-away."

The publishers wound up their 24th annual convention here over the week-end with a plea for constant vigilance to protect the freedom of the press with new emphasis on "the public's right to free access to information."

"The American public's right to be well-informed is the basic right involved in the freedom of the press, and the press should educate the public to that realization," it said in a resolution.

school board held last Tuesday evening, bills were ordered paid amounting to $462.56, which included a portion of the tax collector's commission. There was also paid to the Joint School system, $3,976.92 for salaries and other operating expenses of the district. Receipts reported from the tax collector, were $10,000.

Four hundred and fifty were present on Sunday morning for the annual Rally Day services in St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school which were conducted by the Men's Brotherhood Bible class of which the pastor, the Rev. David S. Kammerer, is the teacher. Maynard Barnhart, Littlestown, a senior in Gettysburg college was the speaker for the occasion. The Rally Day Attendance Trophy was awarded to the Loyalty Sunday School class, Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, teacher, for the largest percentage of attendance.

The Starr Bible class, of which Luther W. Ritter and Miss Rose V. Barker, are the teachers, will conduct a service next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Adams County Home. Members and friends are asked to meet at the church not later than 1:40 p. m.

Plan Brotherhood Sunday

YOUTH DIES IN 750-FOOT FALL

Boulder, Colo., Oct. 11 (AP) — A college student fell 750 feet to his death while trying to descend the almost vertical face of a high rock formation in Boulder Mountain park.

The victim was Robert Pankey, 17, an engineering student at the University of Colorado.

His body plummeted past 17-year-old John Hawkins, his college roommate who had begun the descent ahead of him.

Hawkins, son of Lewis Hawkins, Associated Press chief of bureau at Denver, gave this account:

"There are a series of narrow shelves down the face of the rock and I went down quite a way and slipped. I yelled back at Robert not to try it. I heard him scrambling around on the rock above me and I yelled again for him to stay where he was.

"Then there was a lot of noise and I saw him sliding. He slid right by me and as he passed about fifteen feet from me he was close to some trees and I screamed at him to grab at a tree. Then I heard his body hit at the base."

Hawkins, stranded on a narrow ledge 100 feet above the ground, was rescued several hours later by skilled mountain climbers.

65,000 Catholic Men Parade Sunday

Philadelphia, Oct. 11 (AP) — More than 65,000 men of the Holy Name society of the Philadelphia Catholic archdiocese paraded in midcity Philadelphia last night in one of the greatest demonstrations of Catholic action in the city's history.

The evening program was climaxed by an outdoor religious service witnessed by an estimated 100,000 spectators who watched men from 245 parishes in the Philadelphia archdiocese march up Benjamin Franklin Parkway to an outdoor altar.

The Most Rev. Hugh L. Lamb, auxiliary bishop of Philadelphia, delivered the main address. He urged Catholic men to mobilize as "lay apostles" to save America's peace and freedom from Communism and secularism.

"A nation on its knees storming the gates of Heaven will do more than men and bombs to prevent a third world war, and to secure a just and lasting peace."

'WHITE PAPER' BY BRITAIN HITS RUSSIAN POLICY

By ALEX. H. SINGLETON
London, Oct. 11 (AP) — Britain accused Russia today of trying to run the western powers out of Berlin, of keeping thousands of Germans in concentration camps and of attempting to sabotage Europe's economic recovery.

The charge was laid down in a 4,000-word white paper on the Berlin crisis negotiations in Berlin and in Moscow.

In general terms, the statement duplicated that issued by the United States Sept. 27. But it was in greater detail, with conclusions which took in issues ranging from control of the mineral-rich Ruhr valley to Soviet claims for $10,000,000,000 in reparations.

No Intention To Agree
The British paper said:
1. "The Soviet government has no intention of reaching agreement (over Berlin), save on its own terms."
2. "Soviet authorities in Berlin have tolerated attempts by minority groups sympathetic to their aims to overthrow the legal municipal government of the city."
3. Russia has "embarked upon a carefully prepared attempt to compel the western occupying powers to abandon under duress their rights in Berlin."
4. Acceptance of Russian terms would mean "immediate or progressive absorption of western sectors of Berlin within the Soviet economy and whittling away of the rights and obligations of the western occupying powers to a point where the whole city of Berlin was under exclusive Soviet domination."

Allege Violations
The document charged that "Soviet authorities were violating in their zone fundamental personal and political freedoms prescribed by the Potsdam agreement."

"Within the Soviet zone the population is not accorded freedom of speech or information," it said.

"The judiciary is not independent and thousands of people, including children, have been arbitrarily arrested and confined in concentration camps within the Soviet zone or deported to the Soviet Union."

Plan Of Sabotage
"Skilled workers also have been forcibly removed to the Soviet Union. In addition, Soviet authorities have used pressure and discrimination against all political parties which oppose the Socialist Unity party, which is under Communist control."

The paper said differences between Russia and the western powers were aggravated by the Soviet union's refusal to participate in the European Recovery Program and by its demand to participate in control of the Ruhr valley.

"In the light of the Soviet attitude toward the European Recovery Program," the document said, "it became clear the Soviet claim to participate in control of the Ruhr was, in fact, a claim to be allowed to sabotage the recovery of western Europe."

HOLDS CHURCH

it through retail channels to people who have the money to buy," he said.

"The church-sent aid goes to the people at the bottom whose needs are dire and whose gratitude is real."

The Rev. Mr. Carroll told of his journey that began late in July at New Windsor, Md. At Baltimore, he sailed for Naples aboard the Humanitas with an Italian crew of 35 as one of six "cowboys" tending the 152 dairy heifers being taken to Italy. Conversations with most of the crew had to be by means of the sign language, he said.

Language Not A Barrier
The first day out the ship took in tow a yacht that reduced the ship's speed and added several days to the voyage. The next day the engines quit and after a lightless night, they headed for Norfolk for repairs but later changed course for Bermuda but the engines were put in order at sea and the Naples journey was resumed.

"We found on that trip that language is not a barrier to world brotherhood, only a hindrance that can be surmounted. There were Protestants, Catholics and Jews aboard ship but there were no religious or political difficulties," he recalled.

The ship encountered a storm going over that brought "waves like mountains." The ship passed through Gibraltar on August 19 and two days later entered the Bay of Naples where a small ship met the Humanitas and loaded a number of small cases the larger ship was carrying. It developed later the cases were cigarettes and that the small boat was intercepted so that the Humanitas was placed under arrest in Naples port and word came back to the Americans that the Italian ship captain drew a long term for his black market operations. Other members of the crew also were reported to have been given prison terms and the re-staffing of the ship was one cause of delay for the return trip.

Passed Up Conducted Tows
The heifers, and nine calves born on the voyage, were taken to a farm where they were to be held in quarantine and the Gettysburg pastor spent 13 days in Italy.

Rejecting the regular tourist sight-seeing tours, he traveled on his own and talked and lived with Italians existing in abject poverty in addition to seeing the great cathedrals, the Pantheon, the Coliseum, the catacombs, Pompeii, Mt. Vesuvius and the Isle of Capri.

"I saw people living in holes in the ground in bombed out areas. I saw them living in gutters and doorways. I saw boy-gangs stealing food for their parents had told them they dare not come home empty-handed."

Unemployment Serious
The speaker listed unemployment as one of the chief causes of Italy's poverty and said the work that is available is rationed. Seamen, he said, may serve nine months and then wait as long as four years for their next turn at a job. He declared a valid criticism of Marshall aid is that it sends finished products to Italy. "They need raw materials that will furnish employment while they are being converted into consumers' goods," he declared.

The heifers delivered by the Humanitas were given to individuals or groups of families on conditions that included promises not to use the animals as beasts of burden, not to butcher them or sell their products. They also are required to return to the Brethren Service committee the first two calves of each animal, presumably for further distribution of the dairy stock there.

The Humanitas sailed from Naples September 13 with a wide variety of passengers that included a refugee Czech prince and princess. The ship stopped in Algiers and Casa blanca to load 2,000 tons of cork and then got into the tails of one of the Atlantic tornadoes before it reached Philadelphia harbor September 29.

Thanks Congregation
"I came back to Gettysburg rededicating myself to the preaching and living of love, brotherhood, generosity and Christian service and I challenge you to do the same."

The Rev. Mr. Carroll opened his address with an expression of appreciation to his congregation "and friends" for making his trip possible. His expenses were paid, one of the heifers in the shipment was paid for by the local church and the full program of the church was carried on here during his absence "by youth and adults alike." And upon his return he found his old car had been replaced by a new one, also a gift of the congregation.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Harry S. Ecker, Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian pastor, representing the local Presbyterian church. The soloist was Reginald Dunkinson. He sang "My Rosary."

Constantine W. Boldyreff (above), self-described leader of a Russian underground movement, said in New York the Russian people are "ready to revolt" against "The Stalin police state." Boldyreff said he heads an 18-year-old underground movement known as "NTS" which has its "main forces" inside Russia.
